

Campus Safety Memo Wilshire Center

June 28, 2018

On June 27, 2018, an NOCE Wilshire Center student, Sean Ridgeway, was questioned about the theft of a fellow student's cell phone. When Fullerton College (FC) Campus Safety arrived and approached the student to inquire about the incident, the student fled on foot. When he was caught and detained by FC Campus Safety, the student physically assaulted two FC Campus Safety officers. Fullerton Police Department was called, arrived, and recognized the student as a possible suspect in an unrelated theft incident. The student was then arrested for assault and battery and grand theft.

On the afternoon of June 28, 2018, the student returned to the NOCE Wilshire Center. Staff was notified and called his legal guardian. Upon arrival, the student assaulted his legal guardian. Fullerton Police Department was then called and arrested the student. The student was placed on immediate suspension and is not currently allowed on any NOCCCD campus.
