

TIMELY WARNING

SCE WILSHIRE CENTER

May 3, 2011

On Friday, April 29, 2011, Fullerton College Campus Safety received a report alleging that a female student was sexually assaulted in a restroom on campus.

Campus safety officers apprehended the suspect, who has been taken into custody by the Fullerton Police Department, and is now under investigation.

Since a suspect has been arrested, there appears to be no immediate threat to the campus community. However, the safety of our students and staff is always a priority and it is important for students and staff to consider their personal safety. Below are some personal safety tips to keep in mind:

- Be aware of your surroundings.
- Exercise caution when approaching or being approached by someone you don't know.
- Travel in pairs or groups, and in well-lit areas at night.
- If you observe suspicious activity, report it immediately.
